TO THE TIGER

FOREWORD

In this, the historical volume of The Tiger, we have reviewed the high lights of the history of our own community and at the same time recorded the events of our school during the past year. We realize that these events will themselves soon be history but we hope that this record will serve to keep fresh our memories of them even until that time shall come.

THE TIGER

DEDICATED TO
GOVERNOR NINIAN EDWARDS

First Governor of Illinois, and to the First Settlers of Madison County.

To THE TIGER,

YE HISTORY OF OUR METROPOLIS EDWARDSVILLE

A long, long time ago, in fact, quite a while ago, or to be exact and more specific, one century, two decades, and five years before the penning of this manuscript, the present city of Edwardsville was begun, originated, or settled (take one). In the year of 1805, a man from the state of North Carolina journeyed up the Mississippi River and thence into the beautiful valley of Cahokia Creek where he was attracted by the pleasant surroundings and prosperous looking country. This pioneer, Thomas Kirkpatrick, by name, built his rude cabin on this same creek somewhere near the present site of the old cider mill on the Bunker Hill road behind the Lincoln school, and took possession of some hundred acres of land near there. In a few years, quite a few of the wandering pioneer families of the time had collected in this vicinity.

No one occupied a more important position during the younger days of this settlement than did Kirkpatrick. In 1812 he provided for the protection of the town (which lacked an adequate police force at the time) by building a fort. This fort was constructed on what is now North Main Street and proved very useful in protecting the settlers from the neighboring Indians, who were very hostile at the time. When Madison County was formally created on September 14, 1812, the home of Kirkpatrick was named as the seat of government for the district and it was there that the first court of the county held its original session.

It is interesting to note that, during the early period of Edwardsville's sway over Madison County, that district included all of Illinois north of its (the county's) present southern boundary, all of the present State of Wisconsin, and small portions of Minnesota and Michigan. The Canadian line was designated as its northern limit. According to this the town "ain't what she used ter be," but when we consider that the territory which Edwardsville now governs contains many more people than this old expansive district held, we can readily see that the city has increased greatly rather than diminished in importance. In those days the town was the distributing point of the business and trade activities of the vast area and the center of its social and community features.

The city itself was roughly laid out in 1813 and three years later it was surveyed and plotted by Kirkpatrick, its original founder. He bestowed upon the town the name Edwardsville, in honor of Ninian Edwards, then the territorial governor of Illinois and later said to have been one of the prominent citizens of the town.

The judiciary and civil government of Edwardsville has gone through many stages of progress since the first court session in 1813. After a few meetings in the home of Kirkpatrick, the rather informal county court began to hold its sessions in the taverns of the town. However, by 1817 Edwardsville had become the proud possessor of its first court house. This building consisted of a log cabin, erected by Samuel G. Morse at a cost of four hundred thirty-seven dollars and fifty-two cents. It was soon supplemented by a jail of similar architecture and construction, completed by William Otwell for one hundred ninety-four and a half dollars. The first provision for a government for the city that can be unearthed is an act, passed by the state legislature on February 23, 1819, designating Benjamin Stephenson, Joseph

Bowers, Robert Latham, John Todd, Joseph Conway, Abraham Prickett, and Theophilus W. Smith as a board of trustees and city council (also police force, fire department, and traffic regulators).

A very interesting happening in the judiciary development in Edwardsville is the trial resulting from the first murder in Madison County. Although historically rather insignificant, it illustrates the early court procedure in a rather humorous manner. In the summer of 1823, a man named Eliphalet Greene, employed in the distillery owned by Abel Moore, had a quarrel with a man whose name was never learned, and terminated the life processes of the unknown. Judge John Reynolds presided over the trial, which was a very informal affair. Competent historians say that the sheriff convened court by saying, "Boys, come into the house now-allon ye; John's goin' to hold court."

After due deliberation, the jury found Greene guilty and the Judge addressed the prisoner as follows:

"Well, Mr. Greene, the jury has found you guilty of murder and the law says you are to be hanged. Now I want you and your friends down on Wood River to understand that it is not I that condemns you but the jury and the law. Now I wish to allow you all the time you want to prepare, so court wants to know at what time you would prefer to be hanged."

Greene answered, "All times are alike to me, your Honor. Those who kill the body have no power to destroy the soul."

The Judge grew very stern and impressive and said, "But, Mr. Greene, it is a very serious matter to be hanged. It is something that can happen only once in a man's life. I will appoint this day, four weeks, as the day. Mr. Clerk, look in the almanac and see if this day four weeks comes on Sunday." The day fell on Thursday and consequently Greene was hanged on a big oak tree on the banks of Cahokia Creek, later used for other court executions.

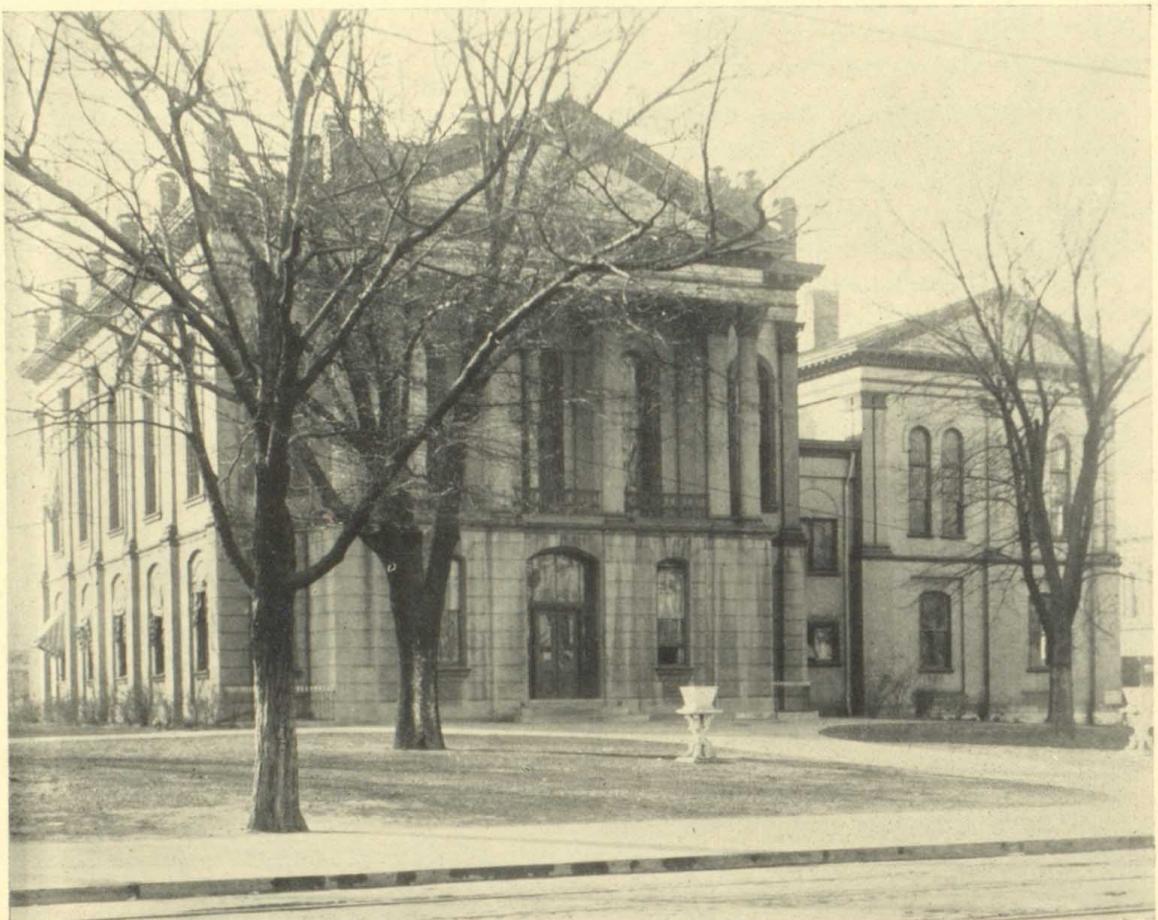

It would be possible to continue this history in detail up to the present time and fill a large volume with just the historical development of our town, but I think it would be much more fitting to leave the development of Edwardsville to the reader's imagination than to bore him with details. However, there is one thing which has not as yet been mentioned in connection with this writing, which is very interesting as well as important. Edwardsville prides itself on having been the home of not a few great statesmen. Eight persons who have filled the office of Governor of Illinois were, at various periods, residents of this city. Among these men—Edwards, Coles, Ford, Reynolds, Duncan, Carlin, Palmer, and Deneen—we find some of the greatest leaders the State has had.

The first two Senators from Illinois, Edwards and Thomas, were residents of Edwardsville and made the city their home during their terms of office. Many other residents of the city have distinguished themselves not only in the early times but in recent years as well. The old Wabash Hotel, which still stands, was at one time the stopping place of Illinois's greatest man, Lincoln, and there are still a few men living who can recall the day when this great statesman made his campaign speech in the town.

And so we draw the curtain on this history with the hope that our town, Edwardsville, will prosper and grow as well in times to come as it has in times gone by.

CHARLES RICHARDS.

THIRD COURT HOUSE IN EDWARDSVILLE

This building, although the third court house of Madison County, was the first one of a substantial and more expensive type. Its construction was brought about chiefly through the efforts of the late Judge Eaton, who became a strong advocate of a new building after the accidental loss of some valuable papers as a result of the inadequacy of the court house then in use, a two-story brick structure. The original building, consisting of the larger part in the center of the picture, was completed in 1857 at a cost of approximately thirty-five thousand dollars. The smaller portion on the right was added some years later.

THE CENTENNIAL MONUMENT

This beautiful monument, which stands in the City Park, was given to Madison County by the State of Illinois during the Governorship of Charles S. Deneen to commemorate a century of achievement in the County. It was dedicated on September 16, 1912, by the Governor. This statue was chisled from solid Georgia marble and weighs about thirty tons. Its designer and sculpturer was Charles J. Mulligan of Chicago, who built it in the form of four figures representing Progress, grouped about the center. The cost of the construction was met by a five thousand dollar appropriation by the State Legislature, brought about by the plea of several of the leading Edwardsville citizens at the time.

CHAPTER II.

In the days of the

To THE TIGER,

THE OLDEST HOUSE IN MADISON COUNTY

This is a picture of the oldest brick house in Illinois north of St. Clair County. The house was built in 1808 by Samuel Judy, the County's first permanent settler, and is still standing just north of Peters. The bricks used in its construction were hand molded and sun dried so that the house required about three years of labor. The white stone seen in the gable was placed there in 1811 when the house was repaired after an earthquake which passed down the Mississippi Valley. It is said that a young negro slave belonging to Mr. Judy was popping corn near the fire place during this storm and was killed. The house was occupied up to about fifteen years ago but is now rapidly falling into ruin.

CHAPTER III.

The house above was typical of the days of the earlier settlers. It was the home of James Mason where Governor Coles at one time boarded. Now Edwardsville has many large homes which make this historic dwelling seem very plain.

THE TIGER

MAIN STREET IN 1911

Well, well, well. Who would have thought that our town ever looked like that? However, it did and here is a picture of Main Street looking north from somewhere near the present site of the National Bank. It was taken during February after one of the severe snowstorms which they had in those days. With the exception of a few pedestrians, the vehicle which is seen speeding down the street is about the only sign of action and the snow has been merely pushed aside to allow the trolley and wagons to pass on the thoroughfare. Compare that with the modern times and we see the progress of only a few years.

CHAPTER III.

From about 1875 till
1912 the first real High School of Edwardsville was used. Now we have a large three story building and a gym of which we are justly proud.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Scene: In the background can be seen numerous circus tents. On a raised platform stands Udell Geers. In one hand he holds a pointer, in the other a pack of tickets. On the platform are many chairs, each chair being filled by a Junior.

Udell begins: "Ladies and gentlemen, you see here before you one of the widest collections of freaks the world has ever known." (Several rotten tomatoes are thrown at him by other members of the Junior class seated below) "I didn't mean to insult our class, fellow classmates. Webster gives as a definition for a freak, one who is out of the ordinary, abnormal, unusual. Well, these" (pointing at the Juniors on the platform) "are unusual, abnormal, out of the ordinary because of their marvelous achievements. Aren't they?"

Chorus from below: "Yea, whoopie! ! "

Udell: "First we have Charlie Busenhart, the notorious cheer leader. Charlie is a famed personage around these parts. Aren't you Charlie?" (Charlie rises, bows, and resumes his seat.)

"Next we have the seven boys who will probably compose 5-5 of our basketball team next year. Stand up, boys, let everyone see you. This one is Gerald Fahrig, famous "basket looper" and steady of Norma Dunstedter. Then this one is "Baldy" Berleman. He played sub this year but I'll bet my last cent that next year he plays on the regular team. This one is Paul Stolze, another one of these famous "steadys." He's been high point man in more than one game this year. Here is Warren Buckles, noted "Black Jack" player. He is sub guard on the team. This year he earned his letter and next year I prophesy he will have George Moorman's place on the team. This rather small one is Bob Ax. Reno's a basket ball star that certainty got gyped. He wrenched his back and didn't get to play in the final tournament game with Madison. Poor Reno" (he pats Reno on the head). "And last, but not least, (in height anyway), you see before you "Bud" Levora, marvelous he-man and giant guard of the E. H. S. team. Without Bud's guarding we should have had harder fights and more defeats. This is just a small hint to people who think that three forwards make a basketball team and believe that the guards are of no importance whatsoever.

"Here we have Courtney Motz, famous warbling baritone and blues singer. Did I say baritone? Let me correct myself. He sings baritone here at school, bass at church and tenor somewhere else. Stand up, Courtney, don't be bashful.

"Take a look at Ed Ferguson; this small rather plump boy is the great brain wizard and smart boy of E. H. S. Ed sailed through Algebra, Geometry, and English and came out with flying colors.

"And now, ladies and gentlemen, let me introduce you to Dot Hyten, famous red haired vamp," (Dot arises blushing). "Dot confesses her weakness for good dancers and shift cars, don't you Dot? Give her a hand, boys, give her a hand." (Spectators clap loudly.) "Now here is Velma Ward, Captain of the Junior girls' basketball team." (Velma bows). "You didn't know we had a Senator's daughter in our midst did you? Well, we have." (Alice Flagg stands up).

"Oh, yes, we musn't forget the Juniors that helped our football team get third place in the conference: Ax, Levora, Blackburn, Fahrig, Stolze, Berleman, and Tenor. They're a bunch to be proud of. Blackburn and Levora are fine for the heavy work, such as pulling down men and sitting on top of them until we make a touchdown. Baldy and Ax are famous too for their tackling work. This boy here needs no introduction, Virgil Williams, famous taxi driver of E. H. S.

"I said we had a class vamp. Well, we also have a class shiek, George Bassford, the great Caesar fiend. George can't be beat on looks, can he girls?"

Ressie Ferguson: (from below) "I should say he can't!"

Udell: "See Ressie knows. You'll take her word for it, won't you folks?"

"And, fellow classmates, last of all on this great exhibition, I beg leave to present Harold Wentz, Dorothy Barnett, Katie Svaldi, Helen Svoboda, Roy Wehrle, and Julia Fiegenbaum, the famous talking sextette. When you tell your secrets to them—woe be unto you, for the next day your secrets are shared by the entire student body of E. H. S."

They begin to chase Udell off the platform. As he runs he shouts back over his shoulder: "Next exhibition will be in The Tiger of 1931. Come everybody and see what we have added to our collection of freaks."

CLASS HISTORY

I

We entered High as Freshies,
As green as we could be,
Walked into Seniors' classrooms,
Which made them shout with glee.
It took awhile to squelch our boasts,
And put us in our place,
We bore our razzing with a grin,
And put on a bold face.

II

Along came class election,
One day in early fall,
We 'lected Helen president
To rule above us all.
To help her we chose Robert Smith,
Also Odell, the wee,
He's grown a bit since then, dear folks,
As you can plainly see.

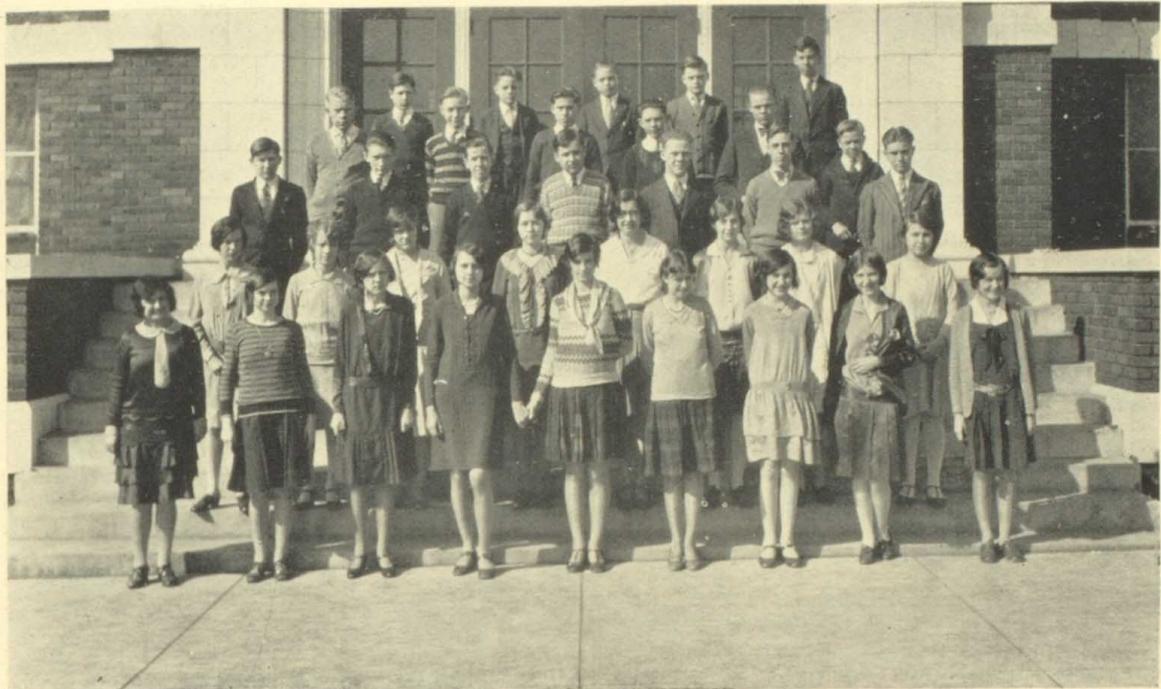

III

We had some famous personages,
To grace our class that year,
With Clarence foremost on the track,
And "Speedy", to all so dear,
One record we hold in our class,
That never will be beat,
Eleanore Gerfen's giggling,
It's never met defeat.

IV

Next year to High School we returned,
To join the Sophomore throng,
No one razzed us any more,
Our life was one sweet song, (N. B. except for Geometry, Latin, and all the rest of our studies.)
A. Blixen became president,
Jean Clark succeeded Bob.
As for secretary-treasurer,
Emrich Cassens got the job.

V

Our studies nearly killed us all;
We worked both days and nights,
Some even made the honor roll,
(Those who were shining lights).
I thought that Algebra was fierce,
Geometry is worse.
Some believed Frosh Latin rather hard;
Now they at "Caesar" curse.

VI

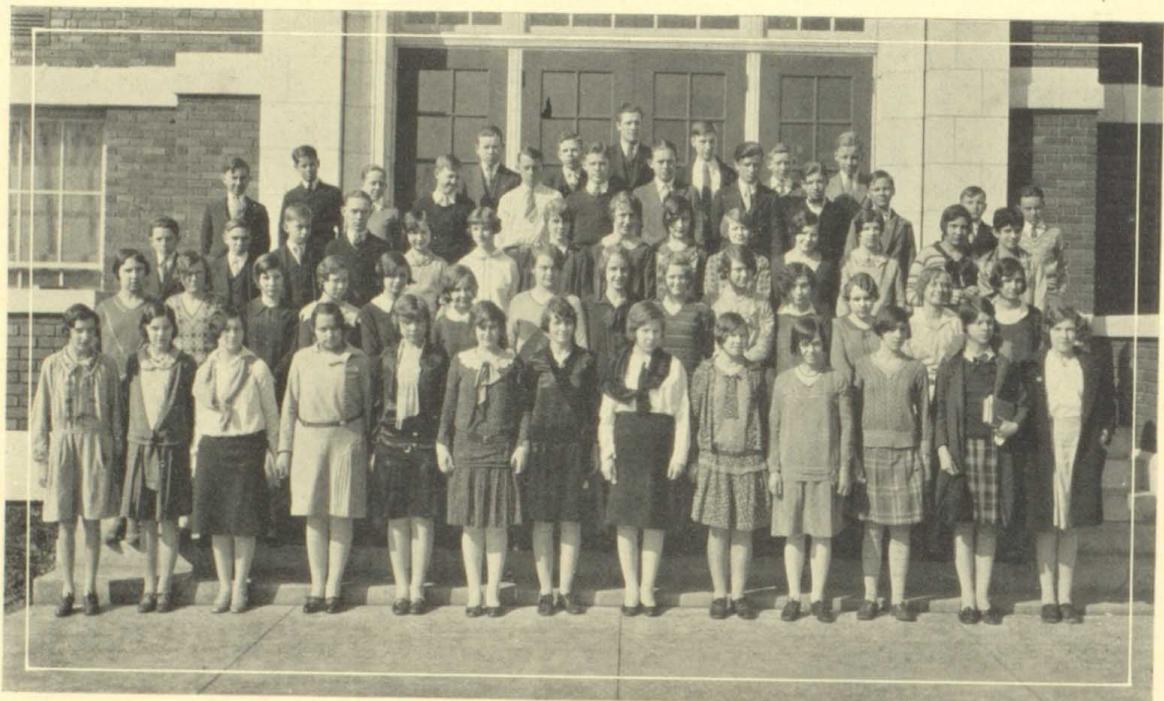

The two events most talked about,
By girls and boys that year,
(No! this does not include athletics).
Was the Sophomore party.
And the tests, so sad, so drear!
The lucky few who passed them all
Rejoiced, while all alone,
The sad flunkies all wailed and wept
In mournful minor tone.

VII

Now soon we shall be Juniors,
With harder work, more fun,
Our Geometry forgotten,
3-1 English just begun.
So readers dear, I'll say adieu,
And hope you'll lenient be,
As you pass judgment on this work,
Of the Sophomore his-to-ry.

CLASS HISTORY

(This is a dialogue that takes place between two prominent Freshmen boys, Charles Tuxhorn and Kenneth Baird).

I

Charles: We've been in High since just last fall,
 But are the best class of them all.
 Kenneth: In Latin some have made their mark,
 Charles: (boastfully) In Algebra I am a shark.
 Both together: Oh we're distinguished —you'll soon see,
 Kenneth: Just open your ears and listen to me.

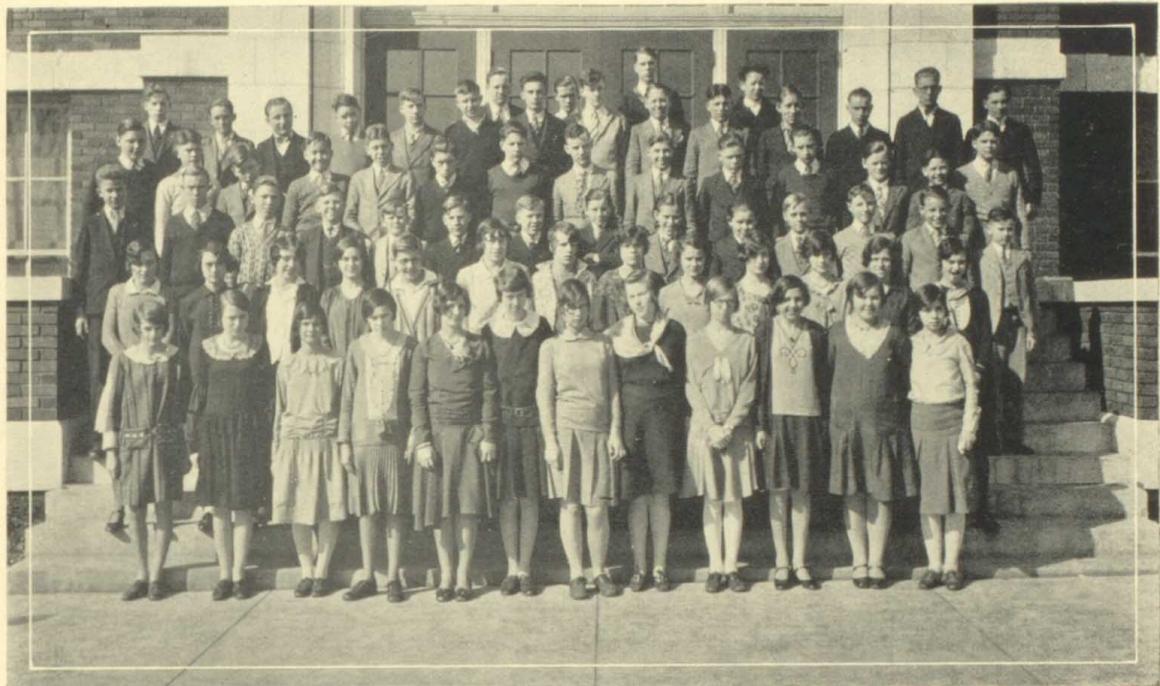

II

Ken: It was hard for us all when we first came here, now that we've stayed for most a year, we know what real work is, I'll say we do!
 Chas: (interrupting him) History, Latin, (he looks sad) and Algebra too. In our marvelous class you'll find no shirkers, But shieks, students, singers and soda jerkers.

III

Ken: (sarcastically) You've talked quite a bit—don't you see? It's time they heard something about poor me. Our class held election one day last fall, I became president—best of them all, (He sticks out his chest and struts around). Ken: Sing? Why Charles Tuxhorn, I can too!

V

Chas: Some girls in our class made the double quartette.

Ken: (answering a question Chas.
whispers in his ear) What? Can Esther Sido sing? You bet! Others got on the ries it took its toll.

Chas: (plaintively) Why should we work or slave at all? I'd much rather play tennis or basket ball.

VI

Chas: Well, I guess we'd better stop.

Ken: I can, if you will shut your mouth. We fight all day without a rest,
One thing we agree on—our class is the best.

Chas: Here's my hand on it—give me your "paw".

Ken: You bet, in that your word is law!

They both shake hands and then bow.

THE HOME OF GOVERNOR EDWARDS

This house, the Dickman home, standing on South Buchanan Street, is said to have been at one time the home of Governor Edwards. The writer, however, has been unable to ascertain the verisimilitude of this statement. Histories of Madison County make this statement but the old-timers of Edwardsville who have lived here all their lives claim that Edwards was never a permanent resident of the dwelling. The house was erected in about 1820 and in the early part of the twentieth century, when new floors were put in, contractors said it would probably last another century.

CHAPTER IV.

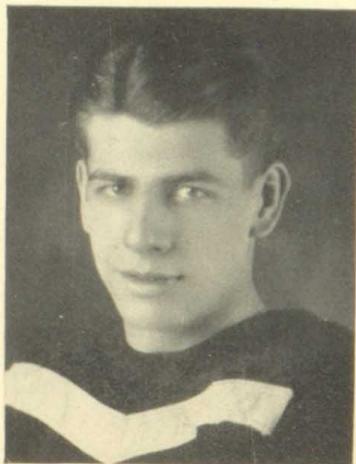

SPORTS

FOOTBALL

STAUNTON 0—EDWARDSVILLE 0—There

CAPTAIN MOORMAN

The Tigers opened their grid season with a game with the big boys from the North, namely, the Staunton Miners. The teams were fairly evenly matched, and the line of scrimmage constantly wavered up and down the field, but never crossed the last line at the ends. Near the end of the half, Gerald Fahrig received a long pass from Reno Tenor and deposited it on the 1-yard line which was the nearest the Tigers came to scoring. The Miners threatened several times to push the pigskin across for the fatal score, but they were stopped.

MARQUETTE 0—EDWARDSVILLE 41—Here

Our first game at home was the scrap with Marquette High of Alton. The Tigers did themselves proud and went over, under, through, and around the Marquette line. Nearly every one on the team got to make a touchdown that game, due to fumbles and passes. But no matter how many points we pushed across the line, the Marquetteters were there with their teeth bared and ready to make us fight for the end. But the game ended as most games do and we were the undisputed victors.

BELLEVILLE 6—EDWARDSVILLE 0—There

Our first conference game of the 1929 season was with Belleville, this year's conference champions. The field was very muddy and, as a result, many fumbles were made and recovered. During the first half, the battle raged on evenly, neither side being able to score. We had been ballyhooed to watch out for those long, unexpected passes from Patterson, Maroon Quarterback, but the muddy field knocked those tactics in the head. Near the end of the second quarter, Cole, the Maroon star half back, slipped through the line and slid across the goal line to score the only touchdown of the game. They failed to make their point. The Tigers came back the second half with lots of vim and vigor, but it was "all for naught," as the poets say, for though the Felines scrapped and tore at the line, the gun went off with them still scoreless.

EAST ST. LOUIS 34—EDWARDSVILLE 0—There

The second conference game was played with Coach Frasier's assortment of tractors, pile drivers, and steam rollers. For some reason or other, the Tigers did not have their old pep and enthusiasm. The Packers crossed our line a sufficient number of times to tally 34 points. Once, a Flyer slipped around the line, back of his own goal line, ran the entire field for a touchdown, guarded by wonderful interference. The Tigers did not score.

To THE TIGER

Collinsville 6—
Edwardsville 19—
Here

You have all heard that Caesar had his Brutus, and Napoleon had his Waterloo. Well, this game was the game of games and Collinsville had its Edwardsville on Armistice Day. The Tigers had the kind of spirit that wins football games. The line made holes you could drive a truck through, and the backs went through them with the speed of a Dusenberg and the "unstoppability" of a truck. When we got down near the goal line the Kahoks seemed to resent our vigorous attack, and put up a strong defense. Our own defense wasn't anything to be ashamed of. The line held like a stone wall, and the ends and backs nipped in the bud any attempts made to circle the line on an end run. Near the half when the ball was in Collinsville's possession, they had the ball on the two-inch line, they fumbled it and lost it when Mel Hubach recovered it and was knocked out in the heroic act. All in all, the game was a success from the standpoint of score and finance.

To THE TIGER ~

WOOD RIVER 0—EDWARDSVILLE 33—Here

COACH BLODGETT

ALTON 4—EDWARDSVILLE 7—There

As the guests of the Alton Red and Grays, the Tigers were so impolite as to leave the Alton gridiron with a 7-4 victory. The day was rather frigid and the gridiron frozen, but the Tigers got warmed up quickly and made a touchdown in the first two minutes of play. We had originally kicked off, but the Alton receiver fumbled the ball and a Tiger recovered it. Then after two plays, Reno Tenor shot a long pass to Kelly Judd who proceeded to flit across the fatal white line. The point was made in the same manner by another pass. The Alton squad had some pretty fast backs who bothered the ends a little by sweeping around them, but the backs soon put a stop to that. The only points that Alton scored were 4 points by virtue of two safeties due to bad passes and fumbles.

GRANITE 6—EDWARDSVILLE 6—Here

There was much wailing and gnashing of teeth on Turkey Day when a Granite back, with 40 seconds left to play, ran thirty yards for a touchdown after receiving a long forward pass that just missed being knocked down by a Tiger back. This touchdown kept the Tigers from fully enjoying their belated Thanksgiving dinner. Only two minutes before, the Tigers had recovered a fumble made by Granite on their own 17-yard line. The Black and Orange proceeded to crash and hammer at the Steelmakers line, until they were finally rewarded by a touchdown, Kelly Judd carrying the ball across for the marker. We failed to make the point. The game was played in three inches of snow which made the playing a little slow, but the spirit was all there.

Thus Ended Our '29 Season.

THE TIGER

About a week after Thanksgiving Captain George Moorman was informed that he was chosen as right tackle for the All-Conference team. Kelly Judd was awarded quarterback position on the second team, and Captain-elect Harold (Bud) Levora received honorable mention.

At the school party given in honor of the football team twenty men received letters, and about fifteen lightweights received their numerals. The letter men were as follows:

Gerald Fahrig
 Gerald Hotz
 Harold Levora
 Joseph McLean
 Melvin Hubach
 William Winter
 Wallace Blackburn
 George Moorman
 Spencer Allen
 Warren Buckles
 Kelly Judd
 Reno Tenor
 Ronald Wandling
 Robert Ax
 Ttillicho Tenor
 Warren Spitz
 Udell Geers
 Paul Stolze
 Ervin Berleman
 William Henry

THE TIGER

BASKETBALL

CAPTAIN JUDD

MADISON—Here

Madison stormed the gates of the Tiger stronghold one dark night and waged combat on the courtyard of the Tiger castle. The fair damsels of the combatants viewed the battle from the battlements of the gym, giving words of encouragement and throwing down roses. But the Attackers were finally repulsed and when we counted noses, we found that the Madison hordes had killed 23 of our dauntless warriors while we had exterminated 32 of the enemy. Long live ye hamlet of Edwardsville.

ALTON—Here

Alton was our guest for the first conference game of the season. The boys wrestled about, neither doing much scoring. We couldn't tell much about the outcome at the first of the game, but the superiority of the hometowners showed up in the final score, 19-14.

GREENVILLE—Here

For the first game of the season, the Greenville basketers journeyed to Edwardsville to receive a 30-33 defeat. The local gang showed some real pep and playing that put hopes into the most pessimistic.

LIVINGSTON—There

The Tigers stalked up to Livingston for the first game away from home. The up-staters put up a stiff scrap as they usually do, but the Tiger gang suppressed them, coming home on the long end of a 19-11 score.

COLLINSVILLE—There

For the first game with the traditional rivals, Collinsville, the Tigers journeyed to their gym where they administered a 19-16 defeat to the Kahoks. The best part of the game was the last few minutes of the final quarter. The Tigers had been trailing along behind for over three quarters, and then by fast work through the Kahok defenses and free throws, succeeded in nosing our hosts out of a victory by a three point lead. 19-16.

ALUMNI

The Alumni put up a stiff scrap which the Tiger troop had much difficulty in suppressing. The Alumni were handicapped by their lack of organized teamwork, but they showed some very brilliant playing. The Tigers managed to come out a couple jumps ahead, as the score shows. Score 27-25.

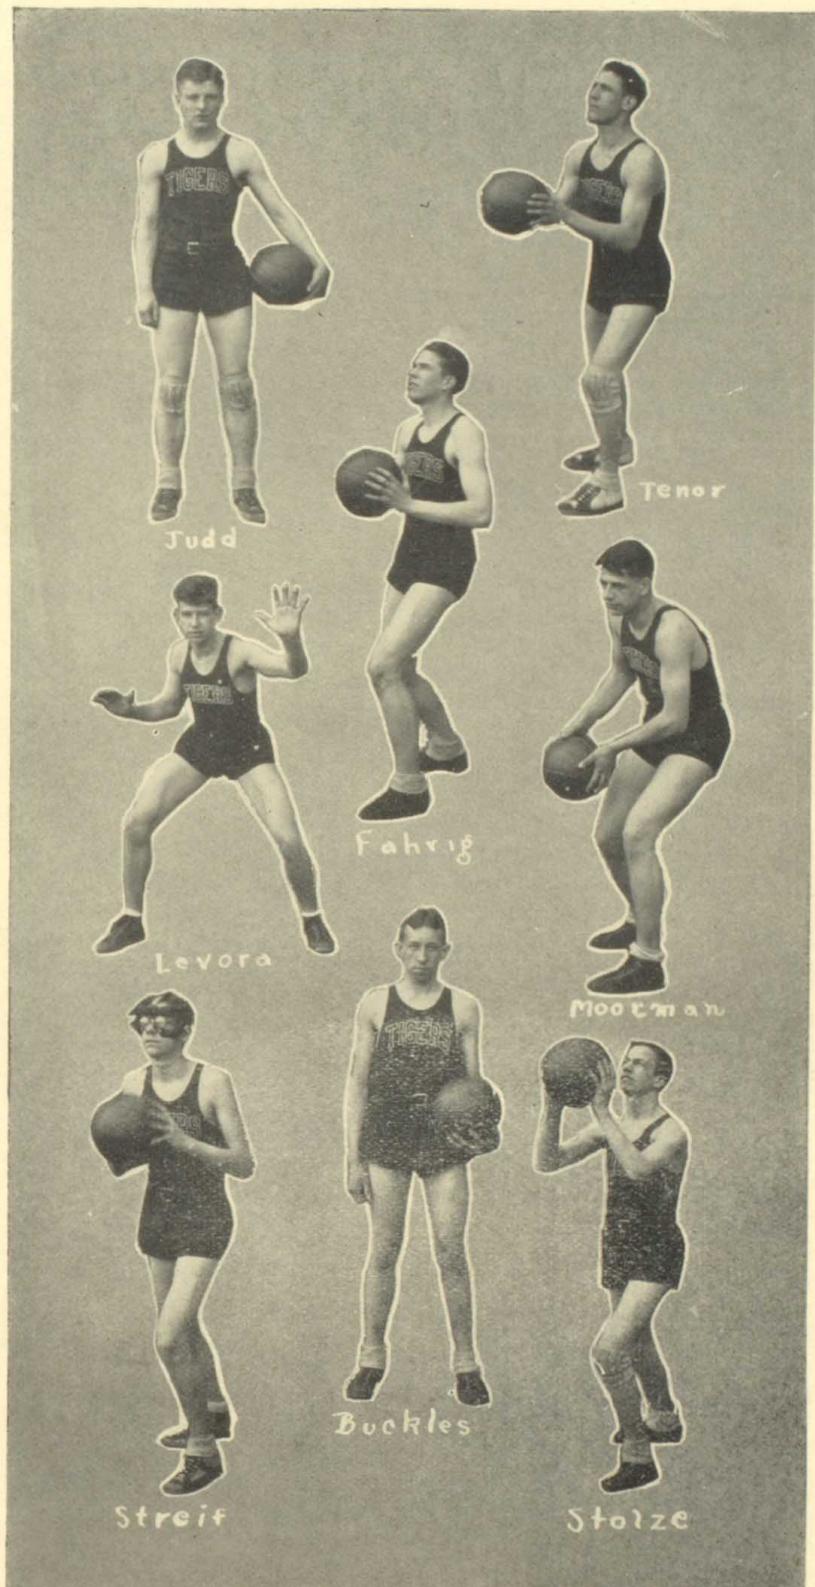

THE TIGER

EAST ST. LOUIS HERE

E. St. Louis furnished the Edwardsville public a very spectacular game. The game started out with a bang so far as E. St. Louis was concerned, while the Tiger boys had not yet gotten warmed up. Then in the last quarter things began to happen. Five thoroughly enraged Tigers sprang upon their enemy and tore them to shreds. They quickly cut down the large lead which E. St. Louis had over them to two points. Then just as the gun went off Moorman sank a long field goal which tied up the score. In the overtime period the local boys ran up their score and came out victors with a score of 27-22. Whew!

BELLEVILLE THERE

Belleville proved to be our Nemesis, our first fly in the ointment. For these sons of Teutonic origin gave us our first defeat of the season, which was also the forerunner of a series of four defeats. The Tigers seemed a little slow and inconsistent with their attack and came home on the little end of a 24-16 score. But we'll have a different story to tell about the next meeting of the teams.

To THE TIGER ~

WOOD RIVER—Here

Wood River sprang a surprise on Edwardsville by defeating the Tigers on our own floor. Up to this time, the Oilers had not won a game, and the Tigers were considered important contenders for the conference title. So this upset caused some shifting of standings. Edwardsville's defenses seemed too weak for the Oilers forwards who broke through repeatedly with field goals. The Tigers offense had trouble in penetrating the Wood River defense. The Tigers came out on the short end of a 24-12 score.

GRANITE CITY—There

Granite seemed intent on pushing Edwardsville farther down the list in the conference standing. The Tigers scored enough points to win most basketball games but the Granite boys scored over twice that number of points. To use Mr. Blodgett's words, "Granite's offense is her defense," which seems to be the case, for nearly all her attention is given to her offense and less to her defense. The Granite forwards slipped in under the guards and rang up their 46 points to our 22.

LIVINGSTON—Here

The Livingston squad gave us a severe jolt when they handed the home quint a defeat instead of the victory that was expected in the home camp. The Tigers still seemed a little weak and slow in both their offense and defense, the up-staters slipping through time after time to score points. The score was 25-21.

ALTON—There

By this time the Tigers had blood in their eyes and were ready to exterminate any unwary team that crossed their trail. The unfortunate victims turned out to be the Alton Red and Grays. All the pent up rage of the last four disastrous encounters was released in the game. The Bengals ran wild up and down the floor, shooting goals and getting in some good defense. Edwardsville had a little trouble in finding the basket for a while but they finally got the range and sent a barrage of bull's eyes. Score 21-14.

COLLINSVILLE—Here

The Kahoks, still smarting from the defeat of a month ago at the hands of the Tigers, clawed and scrapped their way to a 24-13 victory. There was hard, consistent fighting on both teams, but Collinsville believed so firmly that the game was hers that she fell winner to the game. Score 24-13.

EAST ST. LOUIS—There

Stinging under the Collinsville defeat, Edwardsville entered the Ainaad Temple, intent on doing damage and overflowing with ambition. But the start of the game didn't seem to bode good for the Tigers, for the Packers got away with a flying start and ran up a long lead. Edwardsville was a trifle slow in getting started but toward the last of the game, she began a dazzling attack which E. St. Louis could not fathom. This rally scored enough points to win the game by a 15-13 score.

THE TIGER

BELLEVILLE—Here

Heartened by the E. St. Louis victory the boys trotted out on the floor with plenty of confidence and pep. Our guest, Belleville, was as determined as we to win the game. The result was a stiff, hard-fought scrap. It provided the spectators plenty of thrills and excitement, as the score kept changing and wavering. When the dust had cleared away it was found that Belleville had succumbed to the Tiger attack. Score 26-24.

MANAGER GRAF

WOOD RIVER—There

The Tigers went to the Refinery looking for revenge. But alas and alack! A story was repeated. Our revenge was not forthcoming. The Oilers repeated their trick when we were their hosts—taking home the bacon. Upon investigation we find that the score is practically the same as the previous encounter with Wood River, the score being 22-11. Who said lightning did not strike twice in the same place?

GRANITE CITY—Here

Granite came to Edwardsville to close our Conference season. The Tigers came out the losers of a 35-24 game but they certainly deserve some credit for the plucky spirit they had and maintained throughout the game. Edwardsville fought and scrapped, though the odds were against them, until the final gun went off. Granite had to work for her victory. The Tigers started a rally which has won so many of our games this season, but it was too late.

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

Edwardsville was the scene of the annual District Tournament. The entrants were Edwardsville, Collinsville, Granite City, Madison, Livingston, Pocahontas, Highland, Alhambra, Coffeen, Troy, St. Jacob, Venice.

Granite City was picked as the winner, as that team won the conference championship. But Livingston sprang a surprise, and tripped the Granite quint in two overtime periods the first night of the tournament.

Madison tamed Collinsville and eliminated St. Jacob. Edwardsville defeated Livingston in a thriller, and nosed out Pocahontas.

This brought up Madison and Edwardsville in the finals. But Madison wrecked the Tiger's hopes of any sectional games by defeating us.

The standing was as follows: Madison, first; Edwardsville, second, and Pocahontas, third.

THE TIGER

TRACK

Edwardsville enjoyed a fairly successful season in track for the year of '29. The results in the several meets are as follows:

TRIANGULAR MEET—Here

The Tiger cohorts captured first place in the triangular meet between Edwardsville, Collinsville, and Belleville. The total of points for Edwardsville was 50. Collinsville was a close second with 47½ points.

Quadrangular Meet—At Granite

Edwardsville came off second in the quad meet at Granite City. Wood River took first place with 50 points and the Tigers second with 42½ points.

WESTERN M. A.—Here

In a non-conference meet held here between Western Military Academy of Alton and the Tigers, the Cadets retired to their barracks, holding 73½ points to our 39½ markers.

CONFERENCE MEET—Here

A very interesting meet was the conference event, held at Edwardsville this season. Wood River, as usual, carried away the lion's share of points, totaling 41. But Edwardsville was right behind with 33½ points. E. St. Louis, Collinsville, Granite City, Belleville, and Alton took the remaining places respectively.

Two new records were established and one equalled this year. Patterson of Wood River and Shirley of Granite City tied for first place in the pole vault event with a new record of 11 ft. 7½ in. Fox of Wood River heaved the shot put to a record distance of 45 feet. In the low hurdles, Reno Tenor equalled the standing record time of 28.1.

We were represented at Champaign this year by Clarence Bohm. Clarence met some stiff opposition from all over the state, but he came in fourth in the fifty with time of 5.8 seconds.

GIRLS' TENNIS

The game of tennis has been greatly stimulated in recent years by the wonderful performance of the foremost players in America, particularly the women players. The phenomenal performance of Helen Wills who stands without a peer has been an inspiration to younger players in all sections of the country.

In E. H. S. tennis is of interest to the girls as well as the boys. We have only one girl, Helen Brady, who played on last year's girls' tennis team. The first match is to be at Belleville April 30. Last fall a girls' tennis tournament was held in which many took part. There is coaching for girls who wish to perfect their strokes.

BOYS' TENNIS 1929

With three lettermen back, Dale Schneider, James Phelan, and Lenard Streif, our prospects were far greater than they had ever been. In 1928 our conference standing was nothing to talk about, while this year our doubles team won three matches and lost three; in singles we won five and lost one.

In our first match with Alton, Dale and Jimmy defeated Allan and Corbett, 6-3: 6-1, Sam defeated Thayer 6-0: 6-2.

In our next match with Belleville, Dale and Jimmy were defeated by Braun and Hirth 6-3: 8-6, while Sam defeated Hull 6-0: 6-4.

In our third match, Jimmy and Henry Eaton defeated Rich and Visser of Granite City, 4-6: 6-2: 6-4; Hopinson was defeated by Sam 6-2: 6-2.

Our old rivals Collinsville defeated Jimmy and Eaton in doubles 7-5: 6-0, while McWhirter defeated Sam 6-2: 6-8: 6-4 and won the conference championship.

Wood River's doubles team was defeated by Eaton and Wood, a new team, 6-0: 6-1, while Sam defeated Wood River's singles player 6-2: 6-0.

E. H. S. journeyed to E. St. Louis for the last conference match of the season and Wood and Eaton were defeated 9-7: 7-5; Sam defeated Wimmer 6-3: 7-5.

For the first time in many years E. H. S. entered a player, Sam Streif, in the Lebanon Tennis Tournament. In the first match Stein of Harrisburg was defeated 7-5 after having the score 2-5 in his favor. Wimmer of E. St. Louis was defeated 6-1. Woods of University City was defeated in the quarter-finals 6-4. In the semi-finals, Waller of Benton was defeated 7-5: 6-2. After the final match had been postponed for a few weeks Sam defeated Klein of Lebanon for the championship 7-5: 6-4.

The achievement of Sam's finishing second in the conference and winning the tournament at Lebanon made our season a very successful one. This achievement is probably one of the best of any player of E. H. S. to date.

BOYS' TENNIS 1930

We start the 1930 season with no lettermen back.

Those going to Lebanon are:

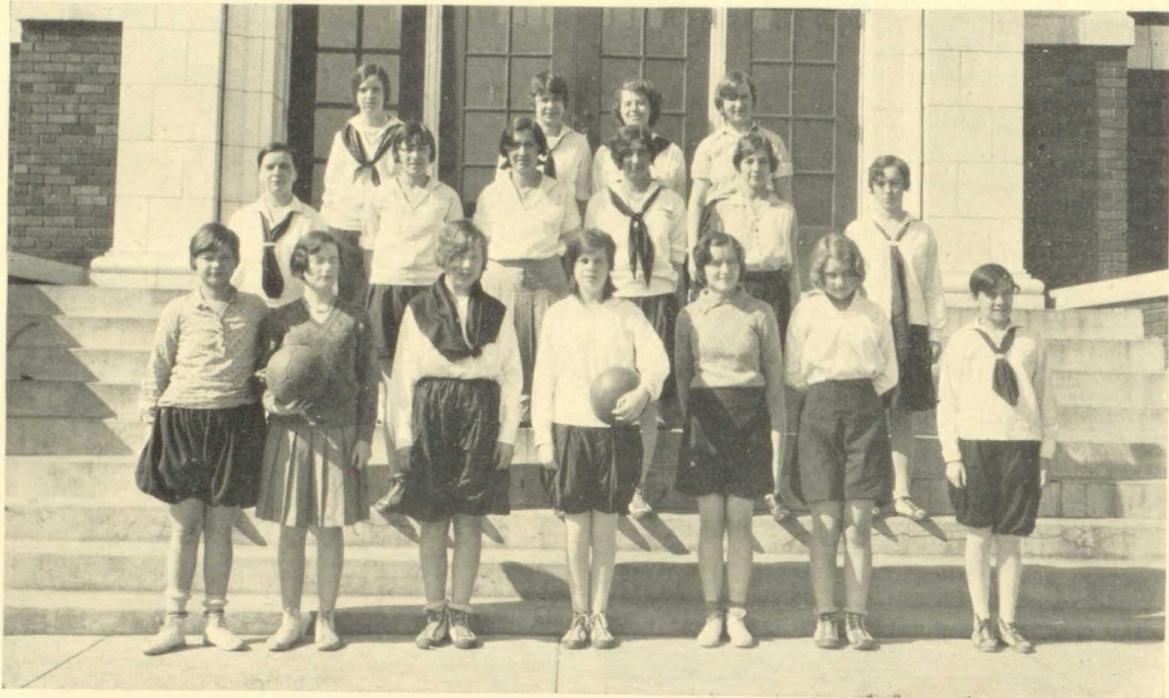

Doubles—William Winter
LaVerne Meyer

Singles—Olin Eickmann
Martin Lange
Paul Stolze

SOCCER

Soccer was started for girls at the beginning of the '29-'30 school year and great interest was shown. Miss Burroughs, physical education instructor, was in charge.

BASKET BALL

Basketball seems to hold greater charm than all athletics afforded to girls, for over 50 girls entered this year. The teams are picked according to classes. The captains are:

Senior—Helen Brady; Junior—Velma Ward; Sophomore—Marie Rotter
Freshmen—Margaret Shaffer

THE TIGER

CHEER LEADERS

Mr. Smith has charge of the cheering, and, as a result, we have four well-trained cheer leaders. At least one is present at every game.

Helen Brady is head cheer leader. There is a marked improvement in the cheering this year, due to the untiring efforts of our cheer leaders.

Brady, Busenhart, Stroud, Voss.

VOLLEY BALL

Misses Lawson and Weigel had charge of these girls and enough girls were out for two teams. They played every Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and, at the end of eight weeks, played a tournament. The Orange team, whose captain was Josephine McKee, defeated the Black team, which had Edna Fensterman as captain.

BIRTHPLACE OF CHARLES S. DENEEN

This house which stands on the present Randall Street was the birthplace of Ex-Governor and Senator Charles S. Deneen. This well-known statesman resided there during the early years of his life when his grandfather was the Pastor of the Methodist Church here. It was due in a large measure to the efforts of Deneen that Madison County was given the Centennial Monument by the State of Illinois during his Governorship.

THE TIGER

EDITORIAL

It has always been the ambition of the Tiger Staff to make the Tiger a little different and a little better than those of the years before. We have made this year's a little different, but as to its being better—we leave that up to you.

The Staff has worked hard to make this a good annual. Each member has done his share. We have had the cooperation of the faculty and the student body as well. The large number of ads and the fine pictures have also helped to make the Tiger of 1930 a success.

We wish to thank Mary Handlon for the class histories and Agnes Mateyka for typing all our material. We mustn't forget to mention LaVerne Meyer, our errand boy. Many a step did he save for us. Our Adviser not only advised but put some of her genius into words. What did she write? That would be telling. Guess again.

You don't have to believe what we say about this. If you don't like the Tiger, remember this little saying, "True genius works swiftly." But remember that it took a long time to make this Tiger.

THE OLDEST HOUSE IN EDWARDSVILLE

This is one of the several buildings erected by Thomas Kirkpatrick in the northern part of the city in about 1805. The original house was a two-room log cabin with a lean-to attached to the rear. It is said to have been the home of one of Kirkpatrick's servants, and was approximately two hundred feet southwest of his own home. Since its construction it has been weather boarded and reconditioned and is still standing on Main Street.

THE TIGER

"NEW BROOMS"

"New Brooms," a comedy by Frank Craven was presented by the Junior Class, Tuesday, April 8, under the direction of Miss King.

A father is the center piece of the play. The point is that "father knows best," that youth may supply ambition, but that age and experience supplies the balance to keep the wheels going 'round.

The son preaches the gospel of a smile and insists he's the last word in a business manager. The father at last gives his son a chance to demonstrate his theories—disastrously. In other words, father takes son's job of loafing. Son takes father's job of running the broom factory, managing the house, paying the bills, and supplying the spending money.

“DADDY LONG LEGS”

The Senior Play

Directed by Miss Martin

This play is a dramatization of Jean Webster's novel "Daddy Long-Legs." It tells the story of Judy, a pretty little drudge in a bleak New England orphanage. One day, a visiting trustee becomes interested in Judy and decides to give her a chance. She does not know the name of her benefactor but calls him Daddy Long-Legs and writes him letters brimming over with fun and affection. From the Foundling's Home she goes to a fashionable college for girls and there develops the romance that constitutes much of the play's charm.

FALL FESTIVAL

October 25 saw the first real entertainment given by the Parent-Teachers Association.

Supper was served from 5:30 until 8:00. Booths lined the south wall of the gym. On the stage were two tents. Here fortune-tellers entertained both young and old. Clowns and gypsy girls wandered about the floor advertising the various booths. Dancing furnished the entertainment for the rest of the evening.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

On the evening of the 31st of October all the High School students were summoned to the gym. We were not greeted by any slimy-fingered person, but instead someone snatched our tickets from us.

The grand march started at 8 o'clock, led by Mr. Ford and Miss Oliver. After we paraded around the gym about six times the prizes were awarded. The following were awarded prizes:

Prettiest Costume—Ella Margaret Williams as Pierette.

Boys'—Jerome Trares as a Russian.

Most Original—Ruth Pieper and Ruth Leuschke as Negro mammy and baby. Martha Dohle and Helen Rizzoli as bellboy and maid.

Funniest—Charles Richards as a little boy on tricycle. Clarence Bohm and Ralph Ladd as a tall old lady with a big black fan and her old man.

Best Impersonations—Lillian Hudson and Judith Baird as the Gold Dust Twins. Corinne Faust and Hilma Anderson as an Organ Grinder and Monkey.

Best Groups—Miss Pergrem and Leone Ahrens as Dutch couple. William Long and Marshall Wayne as Arabs.

After the prizes were awarded there was dancing.

The refreshments were served from the stage. They consisted of pumpkin pie a la mode, Hallowe'en candy, and cider.

We again danced and all left the gym at 10:45. Everyone was sure he had had the most wonderful time that he had ever had at any of the parties.

THE FIRST THANKSGIVING DINNER

A program was presented by members of the Freshmen and Sophomore classes on the afternoon of November 27. After a short prologue and a song, "The First Thanksgiving Dinner" was enacted. The characters represented the famous pilgrims who came over on the Mayflower. The play was directed by Miss Megowen.

THE FOOTBALL PARTY

As a finishing touch to the football season, a party was given in honor of the football team on Saturday evening, December 7.

The men teachers and five boys staged a basketball game, if it could be called such. The game was a mixture of golf, football, basketball, and every other known game.

Mr. Krumsiek wore a girl's basketball suit, and Mr. Gunn represented a bathing beauty. He wore a bathing suit, cap, and rubber hip boots. Mr. Blodgett was dressed in a baseball uniform and wore enough equipment to represent a whole team. Mr. Kinsel represented several different sports. He wore a hunting cap, a blue jersey, and a tom-boy skirt. Mr. Smith wore a football suit and Mr. Ford refereed the game.

The football letters were awarded and the rest of the evening was spent in dancing. Music was furnished by Miss Berry.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The Public Speaking Class presented "The Brown's Merry Christmas" in the gym on the afternoon of December 20.

The plot was based on the fact that there were two families by the name of Brown. Each of these families had an uncle who was coming to visit it. Both uncles come to the same family of Browns. The mixup was finally straightened out and they all had a merry Christmas.

THE JUNIOR-SENIOR PARTY

On January 24, the Seniors and Juniors had a party. The majority of each class was present. "Cooties" furnished the entertainment from 8:15 until 9 o'clock. Even the teachers enjoyed it. Prizes were won by Allene Davidson, Ervin Berleman and Ruth Fruit. Several other games were played and the rest of the evening was spent in dancing. Refreshments were served and the party broke up about eleven. It was declared a "howling" success.

SOPHOMORE PARTY

February 13 was the date of the Sophomore Party. Since it was the night before Valentine's, the games and refreshments were appropriate for the occasion.

Several contests were held and dancing furnished entertainment for the remainder of the evening.

THE GIRL'S PARTY

This year it was a "Kid" Party. It was held in the gym on March 14. Everyone wore kid costumes. The early part of the evening was spent in jumping rope, playing jacks, sucking on suckers, playing with dolls, etc.

At nine o'clock the orchestra (composed of six men) arrived. The dancing began and oh what dancing! Several new dances (?) were introduced and the refreshments were unusually good.

FRESHMAN PARTY

The Freshmen had their party on St. Patrick's night. The gym was decorated in green.

Most of the evening was spent in playing games. After the refreshments, the dancing began. The party ended at 10:30 o'clock. The greater part of the class was present.

SENIOR PARTY

A collegiate party was held in the gym on April 10. The Seniors were divided into groups according to weight. Each group had to sing a song. The lightweights won the prize. A contest of two lettered words was held and "Senior" furnished further entertainment.

The Seniors danced until 11 o'clock, when refreshments were served.

Doesn't run a bus.

Ran around the track during a snowstorm.

Wears a fur collar.

Used such long words in book report that Miss Martin could not understand it.

Was the dumbest in the first period Civics class.

Wears golf socks with long trousers.

Played basketball in front of the office on the day the Tiger pictures were taken.

Tried to bob Eva Ackerman's hair.

Took off his sock in Miss Martin's second period English class because he had it on wrong side out.

Who has a "red-hot" checker game every noon.

Doesn't compare English in the Library.

Couldn't find her Civics class after three weeks of Civics.

Wore a green shirt, tie, hankie, and socks on St. Patrick's Day.

Were almost late for school because "we drove Virgil's car all over town."

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

3. School days! Only half day of school. Have assembly in gym. Have ten-minute classes and then we are dismissed.

4. It seems funny actually to have to study. We hope the teachers have a good time at the institute tomorrow.

9. First bank day. It seems that some still have a little money left after vacation.

12. G. A. A. has election.

13. Senior rings and pins arrive. They are so good-looking (the Seniors think). An unlucky day. Girls gym starts—lots of bruises and bumps.

17. These G. A. A. girls are decorated in blue and white bows and salute the teachers in a mysterious manner. (It's only a part of their initiation. They're perfectly sane.)

18. Assembly. The football squad is divided into two teams, the Orange and the Black.

19. During football practice an airplane swoops down over the field. The team shows speed in trying to get out of the way. The G. A. A. girls are formally initiated. And there were "eats." The Orange wins the football game.

26. Cheer Club meets in gym and selects Helen Brady as head cheer leader. Tennis tournament is now being played.

27. Assembly. Coach talks. We have nine lettermen back this year.

28. What a game! I guess we fooled Staunton. Score 0-0.

OCTOBER

1. Edna Fensterman displays more strength than Samson when it comes to hitting a volley ball.

2. The mighty (?) Seniors elect class officers and Tiger Staff. Girls' Weiner Roast is held in Dude's pasture. Many feel the effects for days after.

3. Have Assembly the fifth period.

4. Go, Tigers, go. We have a pep meeting. Miss Ricke has charge. The football boys have ability to sing as well as to play football.

5. We win 19-0—Where's that licking you were going to give us, Gillespie?

7. "Ching" Tuxhorn tries making a skeleton key for his locker. It sticks. Mr. Krumsiek and the janitor come to the rescue.

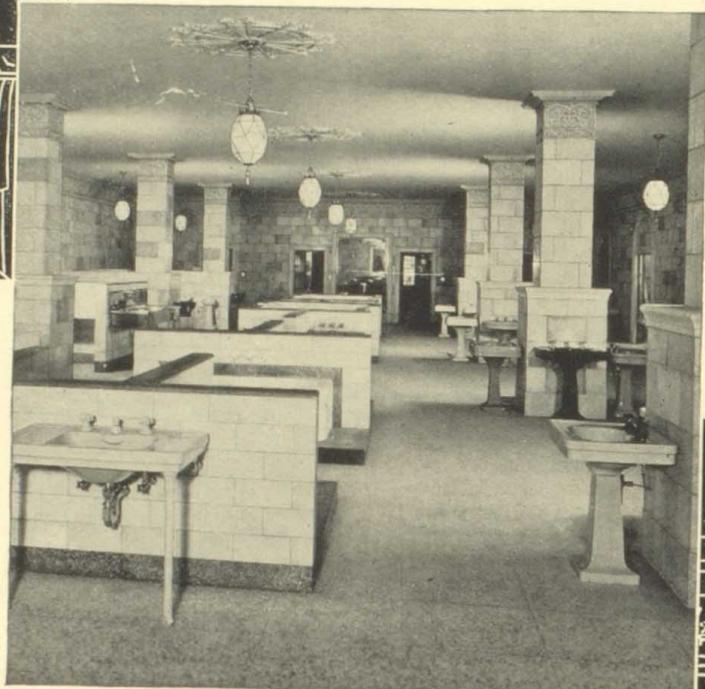

8. The lightweight football teams play their first game. The Orange wins 13-6. The crowds are thick around the office door. No wonder; the World Series scores are placed there.

11. Edwardsville plays at Belleville. Not so good. We lose 6-0.

OCTOBER (continued)

14. Girl Scouts hike to McKee's house and have wiener roast. The light-weights play the second team and lose 46-0.
15. Fire drill. We were warned ahead of time so it wasn't so exciting.
18. Collinsville lightweight team plays ours. They beat us 14-0.
19. Tigers vs. Marquette. Did we win? I should guess 41-0. Who said we haven't a good team?
22. We get reports cards. The worst is yet to come. Wait till our parents see them!
23. Another assembly. Some of the G. A. A. girls are awarded numerals. The boys aren't the only ones who can wear black and orange letters.
25. Pep meeting the 15 minute period. Miss Martin has charge. The P. T. A. gives a Fall Festival in the gym. Everyone has a good time.
26. East Side beats us on its home field—34-0.
29. Girls have their volley-ball tournament.
31. Pep meeting in charge of Miss Oliver. Corinne Faust as a fortune teller prophesies all kinds of good things for the team. Hallowe'en party! Everybody has a "keen" time. Maybe the cider was the cause of it.

NOVEMBER

1. Hurrah! No school.
2. Wood River plays the Tigers here. It is a one-sided game in our favor 32-0.
5. Some of the girls get a scare. They are told to report to Miss Benner's room. It's only for the chorus of "Aunt Lucia."
6. Spencer and Sam entertain a small audience this noon by playing poker with the football tickets.
8. Coach has charge of the pep meeting. We didn't know that we have a Clara Bow among the teachers or a Will Rogers in our student body. They talked over the radio from the U. of I. station (so we were told). To this day some students still think the U. of I. put on that special program for us. Just ask Coach for the particulars.
11. Armistice Day. The game is thrilling. The Tigers skin the Kahoks 19-6.
21. Miss Pergrem has charge of an assembly sing. The boys lose their voices when it comes to singing, but when it comes to talking——? We beat Alton 7-4. Some of us go over to Alton—and freeze.
22. More G. A. A. initiation.
23. Play Livingston. 37-6 is the score, in their favor.
27. Pep meeting in charge of Miss Adams. Members of the Freshman and Sophomore classes present a play "The First Thanksgiving Dinner."
28. Our annual Thanksgiving game with Granite is played in 3 inches of snow. Neither team scores until the last 4 minutes of play. We get a touchdown, and Granite gets one the last minute. The final score is 6-6.
29. No school. Whoops!

DECEMBER

2. Our new teacher is Miss King. She is taking Miss Megowen's place. Boys' basketball practice starts.
6. Scandal: One of the men teachers is hero in a play.
7. Football party in gym is well-attended. The football boys get their letters.
10. Marshall Wayne pulls his handkerchief from his pocket and out falls a powder puff.
13. Friday the 13th is a lucky day. A pep meeting at noon. Miss Weigel has charge. We beat Greenville 30-23 in our first basketball game of the season.
14. Tigers go to Livingston and beat them 19-11.
18. Snow, wind, and more of it. Two and a half feet is considered a small drift.
19. Hardly anyone at school. The out-of-town students can't get here because of the snow drifts.
20. The public speaking class presents "The Browns' Merry Xmas." We sing. Ask Mr. Gunn who taught him to lead the singing.
21. Christmas vacation begins.
27. Tigers play the Alumni and beat them 27-25. We dance afterwards.

JANUARY

2. School again. What a grand (?) and glorious (?) feeling!
3. The pep meeting is rather pepless but the game with Alton isn't. We whirl Alton around so fast that we let her take home a score of 19-11 and it isn't in her favor.
4. Madison favors us with her presence at a basketball game but we take the favor for ourselves. 32-23, if you please.
6. Nigel Voss is our office girl now. The Millikin Glee Club entertains us. We start to Collinsville to see the Tigers win but we don't get much farther than LeClaire on account of the sleet. The team gets there, though, and trims the Kahoks 19-16.
8. Assembly the first period.
10. Pep meeting. Cheer leaders cheer their best. Beat East Side in a three-minute overtime game.
13. Second team plays Bethalto and wins.
14. We lose our first game—to Bethalto, 24-16.
15. Mr. Gunn tries to give Sonny Moorman a shower bath in Physics, but Sonny thinks it's too close to Saturday and so gets out of the way.
16. Second team goes to Bunker Hill and did they beat us—only 15-9.
17. Pep meeting in charge of Miss Flagg. Mr. Alexander gives us some pointers on Wood River but it doesn't do any good. We lose 24-12. Helen Brady, Josephine McKee, Corinne Faust and William Long give speeches on thrift.

24. Junior and Seniors have a big party. "Chink" Keshner imitates the "King of the Kongo." Some say he's only acting natural. Who knows?
25. Too much party! Some of the boys don't get to play, hence—Livingston beats us 25-21.
27. Second team plays Bunker Hill and beats them 12-10. Review for tests starts.
- 29-30. Exams, tests, et cetera! ! !
31. No school. Tigers beat Alton 21-14.

FEBRUARY

3. New semester starts. Lots of "preps" wander about the halls. We get our report cards.
4. Miss Benner has charge of pep meeting. Mr. Palmer gives a good talk, but even that fails and we lose to Collinsville 24-13.
5. All girls have a meeting in the gym.
7. It is rumored that the Sophomores are making arrangements for a party. Who said we aren't Tigers? We travel to East Side and beat them 15-13.
11. Pep meeting in Mr. Smith's care. Some pupils show us how Belleville is going to act at the game. The pep meeting comes true. We tamp Belleville 26-24.
12. Coach Blodgett making announcement: "I have one announcements here for you." The Sophomores have their party. Lots of pretty dresses there—and nine boys. They have a good time just the same.
14. Cupid's day. It doesn't have much effect on the team. We lose to Wood River 22-11.
17. A huge snowman on the lawn is the first thing to greet our eyes this morning. Senior meeting at noon.
18. Girls' basketball tournament starts. Tigers lose to Granite City 35-24.
19. Coach is absent today—as a result, no Civics.
20. No Civics! Chas. Richards and Courtney Motz stage a snow battle on the lawn.
21. Coach comes back to school. A former teacher, Mr. Dahm, visits us. Junior play cast announced. Madison beats us 27-14.
24. Girl Scouts have a party after school.
25. The Freshmen play the Junior High team.
26. Group pictures for the Tiger taken. The team journeys to Gillespie and wins 29-18.
27. We assemble in gym as soon as the bell rings and have announcements.
28. We beat Lebanon by a score of 34-24. Granite plays Madison and beats them 27-17.

THE TIGER

MARCH

4. Oratorical contest sponsored by the Building and Loan Association is held in the gym; Pauline Steiner, Corinne Faust, and William Long win prizes.

5. Tournament starts. Livingston beats Granite. Can you imagine it?

7. G. A. A. gives a pep meeting. Only a half day of school on account of the Tournament. Tigers beat Livingston.

8. Edwardsville beats Pocahontas. Madison beats St. Jacob. Tigers and Madison clash for the trophy, but Madison gets it by a score of 21-17.

10. Pauline Steiner wins first place at Collinsville with her thrift talk.

12. Freshmen have a meeting and plan a party.

14. The girls have a Kid Party.

17. There is evidence that it is St. Patrick's Day. Ask Bill Long if he is Irish. The Tiger Staff advertises its wares at noon. The Freshmen hold their party. (Some say it is the appropriate day for their party, but we'll over-look that).

19. Mr. Krumsiek, Mr. Gunn, and the basketball boys go to Madison to attend a banquet. Report cards issued.

20. The basketball boys attend another banquet, this time as guests of the Edwardsville Rotary Club. The girls have fun during indoor tennis practice—trying to hit Mr. Smith.

24. Juniors win the Tiger Sales contest.

25. Big snow storm. Coach and five basketball boys attend a banquet at East St. Louis.

26. Coach is looking for a new manager and sport editor. Think he'll find them?

27. The checker game in 203 gets rough.

APRIL

1. April fool! The Seniors fool everyone by raising their percentage in banking.

2. The G. A. A. basketball girls have their banquet. The Junior class team presents the Seniors with roses and little basketballs. The Seniors won the tournament, that's why.

3. Everyone but the Seniors has to take English exams. The Seniors have a meeting. The Senior play cast is announced. Inter-class track meet at 2:10. The Juniors win. The Seniors are second; Sophomores, third; and Freshmen, fourth.

4. No school. Teachers attend Institute.

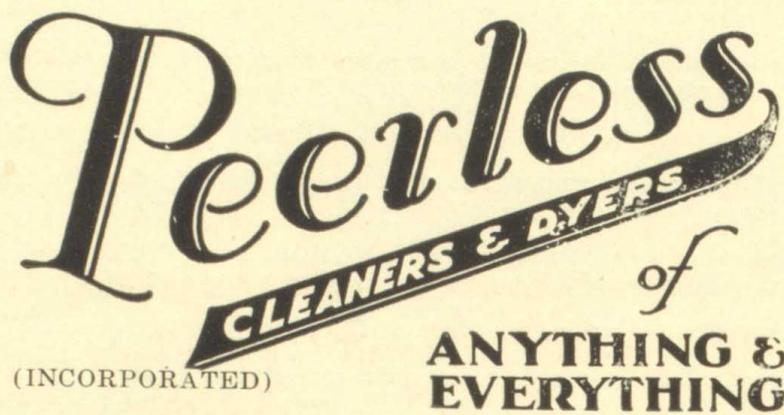

7. The Junior Play Cast puts on a "teaser" at noon.

8. The Junior Play, "New Brooms," is given. Miss King is certainly a good director.

9. The basketball team gets bright orange sweaters. The boys can be seen a mile away. (Scandal: "Spencer's got a girl.")

10. Dr. Harmon, President of McKendree College, speaks to us. The Seniors have their collegiate party.

APRIL (Continued)

12. Triangular trackmeet—Collinsville, Belleville and Edwardsville. We get third place. Collinsville is first.

14. The girls of the Tiger Staff almost come to blows trying to get the boys' pictures that are for the Tiger. Mr. Smith is caught red-handed buying cosmetics in Delicate's Drug Store.

16. Miss King has lost her voice. The typing classes aren't the only ones that have speed tests. The sewing classes also have them.

17. The Juniors vote for their Senior rings. Of course they won't be as good looking as those of the class of 1930. G. A. A. meeting held to decide upon those to go to Granite City for "play-day."

19. Wood River defeats the Tigers in a track meet by a score of 69-44.

21. The preliminaries for the Intellectual contest are held. Mary Handlon will be our entry for the reading, Louise Bredehoeft for the girl's solo, and Charles Richards for the boy's. A girls' and boys' quartette are also going.

22. Captain Hutchison from Jefferson Barracks speaks to us. The girls now play "horseshoes" at noon. They are almost (?) as good as the boys. In the eighth hour English class Miss Martin looks at LaVerne and calls him "Harold", thinking she's calling on Kelly. How'd that happen? Check! A Latin Club is organized.

25. The Tiger goes to press. Whee!

Prof. Smith is my teacher.

I shall not pass.

He maketh me recite my lesson,

And sheweth my ignorance in class

He restoreth my grief.

He sendeth me in the paths of unhappiness.

For knowledge sake.

Yea, though I study Geometry forever

I shall not pass

For he is with me.

His lectures and his theorems, they con-

He maketh a fool of me forever

Before mine enemies.

He covereth my face with blushes,

My humiliation runneth over

All the days of my life.

And I shall remain in the Geometry

"Yes, sir."

"Then tell me, what does C-A-T spell?"

"Kitten, sir."

Melvin—"This is a patriotic pen."

George—"How come?"

Melvin—"It's gone dry, my boy, gone dry."

Librarian—"Isn't this book rather technical?"

Beggar—"Please gif a poor oldt blind man a dime."

Mr. Krumsiek—"Why, you can see with one eye."

Beggar—"Well, den, gif me a nickel."

Courtney Motz sez: "When I sing I am unconscious of my audience; the public disappears entirely."

Coach (having talked about a battle at Valley Forge)—"Marshall, what do you know about the Captain of the English regiment?"

Marshall—"He was very fat."

Coach—"How is that?"

Marshall—"I read that he was one of Washington's stoutest opponents."

Katherine B.—"I say, engineer, what is the average life of a locomotive?"

Engineer—"Oh, about thirty years, Miss."

Katy—"I should think such a tough looking thing should last longer than that."

Ruth Alpiser—"Did you get hurt while you were on the eleven?"

Bob Ax—"No, while the eleven were on me."

Compliments Of

Tri-City Grocery Company

Catherine—"What's your brother in college?"

Betty H.—"A half-back."

Catherine—"I mean in studies."

Betty—"Oh, in studies he's away back."

Blackburn—"You've got one bad habit I'd like to break you of."

Speedy—"Well, what is it?"

Blackburn—"Breathing."

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF:

Mr. Smith stood still?

Brownie turned down a date?

Bruce came without Jinks?

Chink, Bud, and Jule graduate?

Miss Gewe didn't have her hair curled?

Arnold was a shieck?

Paul didn't talk to Allene at noon?

Mr. Gunn didn't tell a joke at pep meeting?

Coach went a whole day without blushing?

Miss Benner was boisterous?

Ruth Fruit got embarrassed?

Catherine D.—"There's something in my shoe that hurts."

Lillian E.—"Why don't you take it out?"

Catherine—"I can't; it's my foot."

Mel Hubach—"Don't brag, brother don't brag. If you'd thought twice, you'd been too tired to say anything."

Wedding Guest—"This is your second son to get married isn't it?"

Friend—"Yes, and our confetti is getting awfully gritty."

It's better to be broke, than never to have loved at all.

Spencer—"Father, I walked all the way home from town today behind a street car and saved seven cents."

His Father—"Why didn't you walk home behind a bus and save ten cents?"

There was the Scotchman who tried to get in a "talkie" for half fare because he was deaf.

DEDICATED TO THE SCOTCHMAN.

Friend—"There wasn't a very big account of your daughter's marriage in the paper."

Scotch Parent (sadly)—"No, the big account came to me!"

Collector (going to Scotch dentist)—"When are you going to pay your bill?"

Scotchman—"Business is pretty slack. I'll tell you what I'll do, I'll pull all your teeth for payment. What do you say?"

We know a Scotchman who shot his wife because she washed out his shaving brush.

Money is "cold cash" because it freezes to a Scotchman's pocket.

Old Lady (addressing Scotch boy)—"Sonny, can you direct me to the Commercial National Bank?"

Sonny—"I can for a nickel. Bank directors don't work for nothing in this town."

Have you heard about the Scotchman who shot his mother and father so that he could go to the orphan's picnic?

MONUMENT TO N. O. NELSON

This statue, erected in 1924, was built as a memorial to N. O. Nelson, the founder of Le-Claire. The expense was met by the combined efforts of the company and the workmen, who each contributed one day's salary. It is made of bronze and the cost was approximately five thousand dollars.
